

Edward A. Khatskin

Associate

708-406-7592

khatskine@hallevans.com

Edward Khatskin focuses his practice on representing clients in high-dollar-value commercial and complex civil litigation matters in federal and state courts throughout Illinois and Missouri. Additionally, Mr. Khatskin has continuously obtained favorable results in defending claims involving medical malpractice, 42 U.S.C. § 1983 civil rights, class action, wrongful death, personal injury, premises liability, transportation, employment, insurance coverage, toxic tort, and general civil and other tort claims.

Education

JD: Washington University School of Law, 2012

BS: Saint Louis University, 2000, Finance/Accounting

Bar Admissions

Illinois, 2015

Missouri, 2012

U.S. District Court, Central, Northern, and Southern Districts of Illinois

U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Missouri

U.S. Court of Appeals, Seventh and Eighth Circuits

Prior to law school, Mr. Khatskin worked as an accountant and owned a mortgage brokerage. This experience has helped him successfully represent clients in litigation involving the financial services and real estate industries, including cases with complex financial data, business valuation disputes, complex mechanic's lien issues, quiet title actions, easements, boundary disputes, HOA and condominium disputes, and alleged realtor and title company negligence.

Career Distinctions & Honors

Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch® in America; Healthcare Law, 2021-2022
CALI Excellence for the Future Award, Complex Civil Litigation, 2012

Professional Associations

American Bar Association
Chicago Bar Association

Publications & Seminars

As a member of the Chicago Bar Association's Litigation Committee presented and moderated panel discussion with Judge Mary Rowland from the Northern District of Illinois on Settlement Conferences.

Other Activities

In his free time, Mr. Khatskin enjoys raising his two kids, traveling, skiing, motorcycling, and scuba diving.

Languages

Native proficiency in Russian