

Stanley James Cassavant

Senior Associate

505-523-4398

cassavants@hallevans.com

Stanley Cassavant's trial practice focuses on premises liability, hospitality and retail, construction and design, trucking, dog bite, and insurance defense. Stan has a background in the insurance industry, served as a prosecutor, and has tried over thirty cases before New Mexico juries. Through his experience, he brings a thoughtful, firsthand perspective to all his clients and has reached hundreds of favorable resolutions.

Education

JD: Arizona Summit
Law School, 2014

BS: Arizona State
University, 2011,
Political Science

Bar Admissions

New Mexico, 2016

U.S. District Court,
District of New Mexico

He served as an Assistant District Attorney in the Metropolitan Division and later with the Community Crimes Division in New Mexico's Second Judicial District Attorney's Office. As a prosecutor, Stan focused on crimes that affected citizens and businesses such as drunk driving, white-collar crime, embezzlement, public assistance fraud, identity theft, and violent crimes.

Prior to joining Hall & Evans, Stan served as in-house counsel for multiple national insurance carriers where he defended clients in civil tort actions. Stan is committed to providing strategic approaches and positive outcomes for his clients.

Professional Associations

State Bar of New Mexico

Business & Community Service

Volunteer Attorney, New Mexico COVID-19 Public Health Emergency Response Act (PHERA)

Other Activities

In his spare time, Stan enjoys spending time with his dog Penny, doing renovation projects at his house, fishing, and exploring historical sites across New Mexico and the Southwest.